

Potential Breakout Discussion Questions for “Sexuality & the Gospel”

11/20/19 – High School

11/27/19 – Middle School

1. What is something new you learned tonight?
2. What is something you’re still struggling to understand?
3. Talk about sin
  - In what ways are all sins equal?
  - In what ways are sins different? (consequences, effects on our own bodies, effects on our futures, effects on other people, etc.)
  - How does this view of sin change how we view our own sin?
  - How does this view of sin change how we view other people’s sin?
4. Describe specific ways in which your feelings have not matched what God says to be true?
5. Do you ever feel like God made a mistake on you? In what ways? What does the Bible actually say about how God made you? Do you really believe that? What would change in your life if you actually believed that? (be specific)
6. How does your gender/sexuality define who you are? Should it define you? What should define you?
7. What is your biggest take-away from this lesson and why?
